Response to Applicants' Inquiries

Expert to Develop the Content of the LMS Training Module "Effective Teams, Teamwork and Decision-Making" for the Academy for Professional Development and Training of Administrative Servants of North Macedonia

ReSPA has received a request for clarification on the procurement notice for the above assignment. The question and answer are published for all applicants, without identifying the source of the inquiry.

1. Eligibility of employees of public institutions

Question: Does the restriction on public servants from ReSPA Members also apply to a person employed by a public institution without civil servant status?

Answer: Yes. The restriction applies to all persons employed by public institutions of ReSPA Members, regardless of their employment status. Such a person may apply only if he/she provides proof of unpaid leave covering the whole duration of the assignment.
