The Second Meeting of ReSPA National Coordinators

21 -22 December 2017, ReSPA, Danilovgrad, Montenegro

Aim and Purpose of the Meeting

During the meeting, ReSPA National Coordinators will have chance to be informed on all implemented and planned activities for last months of 2017 and 2018 within three ReSPA pillars: Public Administration Reform (PAR) pillar, European Integration and Governance for Growth pillar.

The main objective of this meeting is to highlight the role of National Coordinators in implementation of planned activities. Therefore, in addition to regular ReSPA activities (conferences, working group meetings, etc.), particular attention at the meeting will be devoted to the role of National Coordinators in monitoring of ReSPA activities.

During the meeting, National Coordinators will be informed on ongoing process of development of new ReSPA strategy 2019-2024 and the Action document for new EC grant.

The meeting will be, also, utilised for in depth discussion on the first experiences with system of online applications of participants in ReSPA activities.

Engagement of National Coordinators in these activities, will significantly contribute to the better realisation of all future ReSPA activities.
