

Question 1: Can a team of experts appear when applying through a company?

Answer 1: Company can submit an application on behalf of a team of experts. The application shall be submitted by the representative of the company (who can also be one of the potential experts). In the methodology to submit, among other, they have to clearly indicate the division of tasks among the experts, number of working days for each of them (not exceeding the total) as well as shall make sure that all the proposed experts fulfil the qualifications required in the Terms of Reference.