

Press Release

ReSPA and HRMA of Montenegro organize Capacity Needs Assessment Workshop from Regional Perspective

To be published on September 5, 2012

ReSPA (Regional School of Public Administration) together with HRMA (Human Resource Management Authority) of Montenegro are organizing the inter-institutional workshop devoted to the Capacity Needs Assessment from a regional perspective in the Western Balkans. The event takes place on 5 and 6 September, at the premises of HRMA (Uprava za Kadrove) in Podgorica at 10.00am.

In this 2-day workshop, representatives of approximately 20 governmental institutions and bodies of Montenegro will gather to offer their input and solutions towards a synergic approach towards public administration reform, human resources management and required innovations from the perspective of regional and inter-institutional stand. The respective participants will provide the necessary guideline and insight towards better coordination and development of regional efforts in the process of Capacity Needs Assessment, aligning their proposals with the rest of the region.

For this purpose, a questionnaire has been developed and will be distributed to the participants who will provide all the necessary answers.

Launching the event will be Mr. Suad Music, ReSPA Director, Mrs. Svetlana Vukovic, the Director of HRMA Montenegro, and Mr. Klaus Erdman, the international consultant.

Apart from identifying the Capacity Needs Assessment, topics related to regional cooperation needs which may contribute in improving management and decision-making in the participating administrations, and providing support for European integration of the Western Balkan countries will also be welcomed.

ReSPA is an International Institution set-up as a joint initiative of European Union and the Western Balkan countries working towards fostering and strengthening the regional cooperation in public administration, human resource management and civil service reform among its Member States. It seeks to offer excellent innovative and creative training events, networking activities, capacity building and consulting services to ensure that the shared values of respect, tolerance, collaboration and integration are reaffirmed and implemented throughout the public administrations in the region.

All media are invited to participate at the opening remarks of the ceremony. The media are requested to come to the event at 9.45 am.

Event Details:

Where – Uprava Za Kadrove Montenegro

What Time: 10.00 am

Which Date: Wednesday

Address: Jovan Tomasevic 2A, 81000, Podgorica

For more information please contact:

Eris Kasmi-ReSPA PR and Documentation Officer

Email: e.kasmi@respaweb.eu

Tel: 067179334

Blazenka Dabanovic

Uprava Za Kadrove

Email: blazenka.dabanovic@uzk.co.me